

Thinking of Dropping Math?

Say Good-Bye to 82 jobs

4 years of high school math required, calculus and more...

Geologist Computer Systems Analyst Math Teacher Biochemist
 Pharmacist Math Professor Actuary Dentist Electronic Technician
 Architect Physician Statistician Applied and Pure Mathematician
 Biologist Chemist Physicist Optometrist Engineer Astronomer
 Conservation Scientist Meteorologist Economist Veterinarian Geographer

3 - 4 years of high school math, applied math and statistics are important...

Accountant, Certified Public Electronic Technician Computer Programmer
 Dental Hygienist Landscape Architect Public Health Nurse
 Stock Broker Loan and Insurance Underwriters Cartographer / Map Maker
 Property Appraiser Sociologist Lawyer Registered Nurse Cost Estimator
 Audiologist Urban Planner Surveyor Pilots and Flight Engineers
 Psychologist Speech Therapist Drafter Occupational and Physical Therapist
 Elementary Teacher

2 years of high school math required, more is better...

Loan and Credit Checkers Electrician Building and Construction Inspectors
 Processing Clerks Statistical Clerk Health Record Administrator Data Processor
 Insurance Claims and Policy Tool and Die Maker Machinist Graphic Artist Agricultural Technician
 Pharmacy Assistant Interior Designer

2 years of high school math recommended, practical math is important...

Mechanic Plumber Jeweler Animal Care Technician Respiratory Technologist
 Cashier Bookkeeper Order Clerk Welder Bank Teller X-ray Technician
 Stock and Inventory Clerks Travel Agents Engineering Aid Survey Technician Weigher, Measurer, Checker
 Marketing Research Analyst Mail Carrier Computer Technologist Carpenter Bricklayer / Stonemason
 Commercial Driver